“Term” means the term of this Agreement as stated above, or such other longer term as may be agreed between the Centre Operator and the Customer.

2. Service Overview (applied to TGT Hong Kong Data Centre 2 only)

- (a) Both the Customer and Centre Operator acknowledge that as part of the Land Conditions, the Centre Operator undertook, and the Customer hereby confirms that nothing in this Agreement shall conflict or undermine with the fundamental basis, that the Centre Operator will not and does not agree to assign, demise, underlet or part with the possession of Facility Management Centre or any part thereof or otherwise dispose of the Facility Management Centre or any part thereof or any interest therein or enter into any agreement so to do.
- (b) Notwithstanding any provisions of this Agreement, the Customer and the Centre Operator acknowledge and agree that the Centre Operator must use reasonable commercial endeavors to comply with the relevant Land Conditions and the Centre Operator should not take any actions or refrain from doing any act that may materially affect the Services to be provided under the Quotation.
- (c) Notwithstanding any provisions of this Agreement, the Customer and the Centre Operator acknowledge and agree that the Customer must ensure that it may only use the Facility Management Centre for IT projects.
- (d) The Customer acknowledges that the Services provided by the Centre Operator under the Quotation are facilities management services and not data center services. In making any statement or announcement in relation to the Services, neither the Customer and the Centre Operator shall make any representation that the Services are data center services or describe the Services as data centre services.

3. Rules

The Customer will comply with the Data Centre Rules. The Customer will perform its obligations under this Agreement in a manner consistent with any standard, procedure, condition or restriction set out in the Data Centre Rules.

4. Customer Access

The Customer acknowledges and agrees that it will not have any right of access to any part of the Data Centre, unless permitted by the Centre Operator at its absolute discretion on any conditions which the Centre Operator may impose.

5. Charges

The Customer will:

- (a) pay the Centre Operator the deposit in accordance with the Offer Letter to secure the due observance and performance of this Agreement.
- (b) pay the Centre Operator the Charges together with all taxes, tariffs, duties assessments and

- other charges relating to its use of the Services in accordance with the Offer Letter:
- i. in the case of repeating charges, on the first business day of every calendar month during the Term. The first payment will be made upon signing of the Offer Letter and if the Agreement does not start on the first day of a calendar month the payment will be calculated according to the number of remaining days in that month on a pro rata basis using a 30 day month; and
 - ii. in the case of occasional Charges, on the date for payment specified in the Offer Letter, or in any event no later than 30 days after the date of the notice of the Charges to the Customer.
- (c) The Centre Operator reserves the right to change the Charges by giving the Customer 30 days' notice.
- (b) The Deposit will be retained by the Centre Operator free of any interest to the Customer. Without affecting any right or remedy which the Centre Operator may have, the Centre Operator may deduct from the Deposit the amount of any loss, damages or expenses sustained or incurred by the Centre Operator as a result of any breach of this Agreement by the Customer. Upon demand by the Centre Operator, the Customer will immediately pay to the Centre Operator an amount equivalent to the deducted amount to replace the part of the deposit so used by the Centre Operator. Subject to the foregoing, the Centre Operator will repay any unused Deposit within 30 days after the expiry of the Term, or within 30 days after the settlement of the last outstanding claim by the Centre Operator against the Customer, whichever is later.

6. Payment Terms

- (a) The Customer shall pay to the Centre Operator the Fees, inclusive of all applicable taxes and tariffs.
- (b) The contract shall continue after the expiry of the contract period until terminated by either party giving one month's written notice to the other.
- (c) All charges which would have been paid during the unexpired portion of the minimum contract period should be paid and settled on or before the date of contract termination.
- (d) The Fees shall be paid by the Customer without set-off or counterclaim.
- (e) Unless otherwise set out in the Quotation, all one-off fees shall be payable upon signing of the Agreement, and all monthly fees shall be payable on the first business day of each calendar month except that the first month's payment shall be paid on the signing of the Agreement
- (f) The Customer acknowledges that the provision of the Services is conditional on the Centre Operator receiving payment of the Fees in full. In the event of any non-payment of the Fees or suspected fraudulent activity in relation to payment of the Fees by the Customer, the Centre Operator reserves the right to forthwith withhold, suspend or cancel the Services or License.
- (g) Interest will be charged on overdue accounts at a rate of 2% per month above the base rate from time to time in force of HSBC. Such interest will be calculated on a daily basis from the date payment was due until the date payment is received and will be compounded monthly. The outstanding Charges and interest will be recoverable by the Centre Operator as a debt.
- (h) If the customer fails to settle any debt due, Centre Operator shall have a lien on the Equipment and is entitled to retain such Equipment or to sell the Equipment at any price in such manner as it deems fit for payment of any such debt and the cost of sale shall be solely borne by the Customer.

7. Maintenance

- (a) The Centre Operator may conduct routine scheduled maintenance of the Data Centre according to a maintenance schedule notified by the Centre Operator to the Customer in advance.
- (b) The Centre Operator may also perform emergency maintenance at any time without prior notice. The Centre Operator will endeavour to notify the Customer of the event and estimated time period of the emergency maintenance.
- (c) During scheduled and emergency maintenance, the Equipment or other elements of the systems associated with the Services may function below normal levels, or not function at all, including failing to transmit and receive data. The Customer may be unable to access the Equipment, whether physically or remotely. The Customer must decide whether to make arrangements to minimize any loss or inconvenience arising from maintenance events, as the Centre Operator will not be responsible for such loss or inconvenience.

8. Centre Management

- (a) The Centre Operator will provide the Services and use commercially reasonable endeavour to maintain the Equipment and facilities in a good and workmanlike manner. The Centre Operator does not warrant or represent that the Services or the use of the Equipment will be uninterrupted or error free nor warrant or represent any result from the use of the Services or the Equipment. A service level agreement in relation to particular Services may set out the exclusive remedy for any interruption or error in the Services.
- (b) The Centre Operator may upgrade, modify or discontinue any aspect of the Services or the Equipment at its discretion on notice to the Customer as set out in the Data Centre Rules. If the Customer can show that a proposed modification or discontinuation will materially adversely affect the Customer's business then the Centre Operator will negotiate in good faith to continue the Services or the supply of the Equipment on charges altered to reflect the carrying costs of the Services or the Equipment (as the case may be) shared among the Customers requiring it.
- (c) The Centre Operator may investigate suspected violations of any of the terms and conditions of this Agreement (which includes the Data Centre Rules). The Customer will provide such assistance and information in its possession as may be required to help the Centre Operator in its investigation. The Customer consents to the Centre Operator requiring information from the Customer and the Customer's users and clients. The Centre Operator may deny access at the router or other level to the Equipment during an investigation. If the Centre Operator has reasonable cause to believe that a violation has occurred or is about to occur, it may take such responsive action to stop or prevent such violation as it deems fit including, but not limited to, suspension or termination of the Services or the supply of the Equipment.

9. Intellectual Property Rights

- (a) Unless otherwise agreed in writing, any internet resource (including an internet protocol address) held, provided or procured by a party will remain the property of that party and the other will have no right, title or interest in that resource. The controlling party will have the right to withdraw any internet resource at any time.
- (b) Any internet protocol address allocated by the Centre Operator to the Customer will, as between the parties, remain the property of the Centre Operator, and the Customer will acquire no right to such address.
- (c) The Customer will not use, imitate or reference the name, logo, trade name, trade mark or get-up of the Centre Operator without the prior written consent of the Centre Operator.

10. Traffic Management

The Customer will not utilize the Services in a manner which, in the view of the Centre Operator, significantly distorts traffic balance on the Centre Operator's circuits which are shared with other users. If, in the reasonable view of the Centre Operator, the Customer's traffic patterns cause or may cause such distortion, the Customer should have a dedicated circuit capability. If the Customer declines to do so then the Centre Operator may suspend the Services while the matter is being resolved. If there is no resolution within 5 business days then either party may terminate the Agreement.

11. Limitation of Liability

The Centre Operator will not under any circumstances be liable for:

- (a) any loss or damages due to the overflow of water, influx of rain water or sea water into the Data Centre, or the activities of rats or other vermin in the Data Centre, or the escape of fumes, smoke, fire or any other substance or thing from anywhere within the Data Centre, or caused as a result of burglary or robbery or due to the defect in or breakdown or suspension of services of the lifts, escalators, fire and security services, air-conditioning plant, telecommunication infrastructure, power supply system, fire protection system or other services of the building of which the Data Centre form part;
- (b) any loss or damages due to the neglect or default of the customers, tenants or and occupiers of any other parts of the Data Centre or the building and their employees, agents, licensees and visitors;
- (c) any incidental, indirect, consequential, special or economic loss or damage (including but not limited to loss of profit, business, management time, data, records, goodwill or claims of customers) by the Customer howsoever arising out of this Agreement, the provision of the Services or the Equipment or the operation of the Data Centre;
- (d) any loss or damages due to or in respect of any inherent defect or design defect in the Equipment or systems in the Data Centre or any objection relating to the rights of user in relation to the building; or
- (e) or obliged to rectify or to improve the quality or defect in connectivity, Equipment or performance level which may have been caused by acts, default or negligence of any third party, or due to depreciation of any system or facilities, or due to any reason not attributable to the Centre Operator's default in carrying out routine maintenance to the Centre Operator's Equipment or facilities.

Except in relation to personal injury or' death, the aggregate liability of the Centre Operator to the Customer whether arising in contract, tort (including negligence), statutory liability or otherwise will under no circumstances exceed the amount of the Charges paid to the Centre Operator during the period of six months prior to the event giving rise to the cause of action. Where a service level agreement provides a remedy in respect of downtime or other service issues, that remedy will be the Customer's sole right in relation to any claim.

12. Indemnity

The Customer will, as applicable, defend, indemnify and hold harmless the Centre Operator from and against the following, including all costs, losses, damage and expenses (including lawyers fees):

- (a) any third party claim in respect of or concerning any hardware, software or other systems of the Customer that the Customer has designed, installed and/or operates or claiming a breach of the third party's intellectual property rights;
- (b) any claim that any subcontractor or agent of the Customer may make against Centre Operator in respect of or concerning any work carried out in the Data Centre;
- (c) any claim, demand, action, proceeding whatsoever by any user of any system in the Internet Applications Centre connected to the Customer's system;
- (d) any loss or expense suffered by the Centre Operator due to the misuse of the Centre Operator's system by, or any act or default of, the Customer, its representative, employee, contractor, agent or customer; and
- (e) all claims, actions, proceedings, loss, damage, costs, expenses and liabilities whatsoever arising from any improper use, or any use in violation of law or third party rights, of the Services or the Equipment by the Customer or any person authorized or permitted by the Customer.

13. Suspension of Services

- (a) The Centre Operator shall have the right to modify or discontinue any aspect of the Services of License at its discretion upon 10 days prior written notice to the Customer..
- (b) The Centre Operator reserves the right to suspend or terminate the Services immediately for the following reasons:
 - (i) In order to upgrade, repair or maintain the Services (including any telecommunications link, hardware or software);
 - (ii) where the Customer fails to pay the Fees;
 - (iii) where, in its reasonable opinion, it suspects that the Customer has breached its obligations under the Agreement;
 - (iv) where the Customer does or suffers anything to be done which jeopardizes the Services or any network to which it is from time to time connected;
 - (v) where the Customer network or Customer Equipment is being used or is suspected of being used by a third party for spamming, hacking, or any other action that is or may be detrimental to the Services or the network.
- (c) The exercise of Centre Operator's rights of suspension under this clause will not (i) exclude its rights to terminate the Services later in respect of that or any other event, nor (ii) prevent it from claiming damages from the Customer in any respect of any breach.

14. Termination of Services

The Agreement commences on the day specified in the Quotation and ends at the expiration of the Term. The Customer shall in writing notify the Centre Operator not less than one month before the expiry of the Term if it does not wish to renew the Agreement. In the absence of such notice and unless the Centre Operator terminates the Agreement in writing, the Agreement shall automatically be renewed on a monthly basis on the same terms with the same amount of Fee payable by the Customer and either party may by one month's written notice terminate the Agreement during such renewed term.

(a) This Agreement will terminate:-

(i) at the end of the Term;

(ii) Immediately on notice from either the Customer or the Centre Operator if the Centre Operator is unable to offer the Services to the Customer due to any law, regulation, or other reason beyond its control; or

(iii) Immediately on notice from the Centre Operator to the Customer if the Customer has failed to remedy a breach of this Agreement within 48 hours of notice to do so.

(iv) 14 days from the service suspension

(b) The Customer will be liable for all Charges up to the date of termination without prejudice to the Centre Operator's right to any claim against the Customer for any breach of this Agreement

(c) Without prejudice to any other provision, if the Customer commits a breach of the Agreement, Centre Operator shall have the right to suspend and/or terminate all of any of the Services and the License and deny access and removal of the Equipment by the Customer to the Equipment without prior notice without being liable to the Customer. Once the Services have been suspended or terminated or License is revoked or access to the Equipment is denied, reinstatement shall be at the sole discretion of Centre Operator and subject to such conditions as Centre Operator may think fit.

(d) Upon termination, whether under Clause 14(a) above or otherwise, the Customer will, without prejudice to the Centre Operator's rights to claim damages, become immediately liable to pay to the Centre Operator an amount comprising the aggregate of:

(i) all arrears of Charges and other monies accrued due and unpaid under the terms of this Agreement together with any interest thereon;

(ii) any costs and expenses incurred by the Centre Operator in restoring the Equipment or collecting any payments due under this Agreement, or otherwise in obtaining the due performance of the obligations of the Customer under this Agreement;

(iii) the aggregate of all Charges that would have been payable during the unexpired term of the Term; and

(iv) all and any other sums due under this Agreement.

(e) For the avoidance of doubt, any payment in advance will not be refunded. Where applicable, credit will be given to the Customer to take account of the early receipt of payment by the Centre Operator and any cost savings as a result of early termination. The amount of such credit will be determined solely by the Centre Operator.

(f) The Customer will remove any Equipment not provided by the Centre Operator (if any) within 5 business days of termination.

(g) If the Customer does not comply with its obligations in clause 14(f) within 5 business days of termination of this Agreement, the Centre Operator will be entitled to remove any Equipment not provided to the Customer by the Centre Operator and dispose of it in a manner as the Centre Operator thinks fit without any compensation or being liable to the Customer in any way. The cost of removal and disposal or sale will be recoverable from the Customer as debt. The proceeds of sale (if any) after deduction of all relevant costs will be credited to the Customer. Customer is not allowed to access or to remove Equipment until all outstanding payment is settled and confirmed by Towngas Telecom account department.

(h) The Customer will return any manuals or other materials provided by the Centre Operator or the Manufacturer for use of the Equipment or the Services within 5 business days of termination.

(i) Without prejudice to anything which may appear in any lease, the Centre Operator reserves all rights to re-possess, uninstall and remove the Equipment and/or any Equipment leased to the Customer if the Customer breaches this Agreement or on termination of this Agreement.

15. General

(a) The parties do not intend to create any tenancy or estate or interest in land and nothing in this Agreement will be construed as creating the relationship of landlord and tenant between the Centre Operator and the Customer.

(b) This Agreement supersedes all prior agreements, arrangements and understandings between the parties and constitutes the entire agreement between the parties relating to the subject matter hereof. No addition to or modification of any provision of this Agreement will be binding upon the parties unless made by a written instrument signed by a duly authorized representative of each of the parties.

(c) If any of the provisions of this Agreement are held to be illegal or invalid, it will not affect the legality, validity, or enforceability of the other provisions of this Agreement. The illegal and invalid provision will be deemed to have been deleted from this Agreement.

(d) The Customer will keep the terms of this Agreement confidential.

(e) The Customer will abide by all applicable laws (whether of Hong Kong or of any relevant jurisdiction) in relation to the use of the Services and the Equipment. The Customer further warrants that its use of the Services and the Equipment does not infringe any third party rights or violate any law.

(f) The Centre Operator may assign or charge this Agreement or its rights hereunder to any person. The Customer may not without the prior written consent of the Centre Operator assign, transfer or charge or purport to assign, transfer or charge this Agreement or its rights or obligations hereunder whether in whole or in part to any person.

(g) The company reserves the right to alter, add to or delete any of these Conditions at any time without giving prior notice to the Customer. The Customer agrees that the use (whether or not by the Customer) of the Services and License will constitute the Customer's acceptance of these Conditions (as from time to time amended)

(h) This Agreement will be construed in accordance with the laws of the Hong Kong Special Administration Region of the PRC and the Centre Operator and the Customer hereby submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the Hong Kong Special Administration Region of the PRC.

(i) Data Centre Rules are listed in Schedule 1.
